

Mudcollege Farm Main Season CSA 2025

Ben Mearns, Owner/Manager | farmer@mudcollege.com | text/call: 717-677-2530 | mudcollege.com

In a nutshell

weekly plan: $ 528

biweekly plan = $ 264

24 weeks of produce and eggs – from end to beginning of Farmers Market in Gettysburg

“vacation weeks” lower your price by $22 per week. This week CSA “holidays” (no CSA) will occur the weeks of July 4th and Memorial day (Tu 7/1, Sat 7/5, Tu 8/26, Sat 8/30)

Please be sure to let us know your email address with the form below, or when you make payment so we can stay in touch.

Thank you for your interest in Mudcollege Farm’s Community-supported agriculture (CSA) program! By committing to a weekly or bi-weekly selection of our organic produce and pasture-raised non-gmo non-soy fed eggs you play a crucial role in sustainable food systems, environmental stewardship, and supporting local economies.

How does this work?

Customers buy “shares” of Mudcollege Farm’s harvest in advance and then receive a weekly portion of the crops and eggs as we harvest them, throughout the season. The amount of produce and eggs will be greater than or equal to $22/week. At our two staffed locations, you will have the option to substitute one item for an item listed as “CSA choice” in our weekly updates email. Please bring last week’s bag or another labeled bag to your pickup site (boxes are also ok at staffed locations), so that we can repack it for the following week.

Share descriptions

We load up a reusable tote bag (or box at our staffed locations) of fresh, certified organic produce for you to pick up (if you forget we have plenty of paper bags). You have the option to include one half dozen free-range eggs at no extra charge. You can also include one dozen eggs for a nominal price, see cost section below.

Example share:

- 3 cucumbers (certified organic)
- 1 bag lettuce spring mix (certified organic)
- 1 bell pepper (certified organic)
- 1 Lb potatoes (certified organic)
- 1 box cherry tomatoes (certified organic)
- 1 dozen or 1/2 dozen non-GMO fed pastured brown eggs

The following is a list of produce that we will be packing in your CSA this year (italics indicates very limited quantities)

- Certified Organic: arugula, asparagus, basil, green bean, beet, brassica salad mix, broccoli, broccoli raab, napa cabbage, red cabbage, cantaloupe, carrot, cauliflower, swiss chard, bok choy, cilantro, sweet corn, pickling cucumber, slicing cucumber, dill, eggplant, fennel, garlic, kale, leek, head lettuce, lettuce mix, okra, onion bulbs, parsley, snap peas, snow peas, bell pepper, jalepeno pepper, lunchbox pepper, poblano pepper, potatoes, sweet potato, pumpkin, radishes, scallions, shallot, spinach, acorn squash, butternut squash, delicata squash, spaghetti squash, summer squash, zucchini squash, heirloom tomato, slicer tomato, turnips, watermelon, strawberry
- Organically grown (not certified) by Mudcollege Farm: pear, plum

- During blueberry season we are maintaining and harvesting blueberries from our neighbors across the street at Mount Joy Berry Farm
- We also sometimes supplement with organically grown produce from our friends at Weaving Roots Farm (New Oxford, PA), Hundredfold Farm (Orrtanna, PA), and Summer Creek Farm (Thurmont, MD). No spray asian pears and nuts from Tom J. (Gettysburg), and conventionally grown fruit from Hannah H. (Cashtown, PA)

Pickup Sites and Schedules

Our CSA program runs for 24 weeks this year, starting on Tuesday April 29th and ends on Saturday October 25th. Locations, days and times are outlined below. We may add additional locations and times. Half share (Bi-Weekly) members will alternatively be assigned to pick up on odd or even weeks.

Mudcollege Farm Tuesday Tuesdays after 3 pm, self-serve
--

Adams County Farmers Market Saturdays from 8am – 1pm Staffed Location

 If you will miss your pickup and would like for us to bring it to the market or pick up at the farm, please let us know in advance so we can plan accordingly.*

Cost

Full Share (weekly)

- Organic produce + ½ Dozen non-GMO pastured eggs (if selected) - $528 check/$544 credit

Half Share (bi-weekly)

- Organic produce + ½ Dozen non-GMO pastured eggs (if selected) - $264 check/$272 credit

Payment Methods

Mudcollege Farm happily accepts cash, check, credit, food assistance vouchers (WIC/FMNP), and by app (Venmo, Paypal, and Cash App). Credit and app prices are higher to reflect processing fees.

Payment for the season is due at sign up or renewal. An exception is for Full Share members who would like to pay in two installments of $264.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: How do I sign up

A: Sign up online at mudcollege.com/csa, I will contact you with payment instructions

Q: What can I do when I am unable to pickup my share at my normal time/place?

A: If you are unable to make it on the day of your normal pickup, please let us know – we will store your share at our on-farm cooler and you can come help yourself/pick it up when you are able. We also store all shares not picked up in our cooler until at least the next CSA day (e.g., if you are a Saturday pickup and you forget to come to market, it will be stored in the cooler until at least the next Tuesday).

If you are unable to pick up the week of your CSA (for example, you will be on vacation), you can pick up the following week (bi-weekly shares) or if you have a weekly share you will receive a $22 credit that you can apply at a choose your own site (farmers market or on-farm).

Q: If I choose a bi-weekly share when is my first week of pick up?

A: Bi-weekly shares are assigned even or odd weeks semi-randomly. For example, half of the bi-weekly share members will begin pick ups on the first week of CSA, and half will begin the second week of the CSA. You will then pick up 2 weeks from your pickup week henceforth. We will contact all CSA members in May with their first pick up week.

Q: What can I do if I can no longer continue?

A: You may transfer your share to another person at your discretion. Just let us know, and they will be able to let us know their desired pickup place. We can also facilitate the donation of your share to a household in need.

Q: How can I get veggies and eggs in early May?

A: Come visit us at our market location, Adams County Farmers Market in Gettysburg. As a CSA member, you will receive 10% off your order when you mention the CSA discount.

Q: How can I get veggies and eggs November through May?

A: Come visit us out our popup locations at Mudcollege Farm and other farms and locations in Adams County. Our Fall/Winter/early-spring CSA covers the “dark months” – please contact farmer@mudcollege.com for more info.

Q: How can I get more of your veggies? “I really liked the Okra, but I need more to make a good dish.”

A: Come visit us at a market location (e.g., Adams County Farmers Market in Gettysburg)

Q: I don't want eggs, can I get more veggies instead?

A: Yep, just select “no eggs” on the sign up form

Q: What about bags and containers?

A: You are welcome to provide a bag, we will try to refill this for your share. You can return it at the location where you pick up, and we will fill it for the following week. If we don't have a bag for your (or can't easily find it) we will fill up a paper bag – no prob. We also try to reuse clean containers and egg cartons, which you can return to use.
